PEACE IN MEXICO IS NOW IN SIGHT

Result of Conference Between Federal Envoy and Gen. Madero.

PRESIDENT DIAZ TO RESIGN

Signing of Agreement Will Probably Take Place Within Two Days—Principal Questions Already Agreed Upon.

Juarez, May 16.—Peace, the fervent hope of Mexico, now torn by rebellion, tonights seems almost an accomplished fact to those who are negotiating a settlement of the revolt.

Judge Carbajal, the Federal peace envoy, has announced that, barring the unforeseen, a general armistice will be declared within 24 hours. Provisional President Madero has declared that mutually acceptable preparations have at last been reached, and peace is assured.

The formal signing of a peace agreement will probably take place here within the next two days. President Diaz probably will resign within two or three months, at any rate when peace shall be restored.

Two principal questions have all but been agreed upon; namely, the number of cabinet members and governors to be allowed the insurrectos, and the other conditions have for some time been tacitly determined by both sides. Now, it will be merely a matter of technical detail to draft the peace terms formally and to arrange a modus operandi for the discharge of their provisions.

The price of peace paid by the Federal government is the resignation of the near future of President Diaz and the granting to the rebels now of three cabinet positions and 14 governorships. The price paid by the Mexican people is at least a thousand lives, untold suffering to many hundreds of wounded, sick and poor, the destruction of millions in property, and the probability that want for many months may haunt the inhabitants of possibly a fourth of the Republic.

Up to tonight the government had acceded to the insurrecto demand for three cabinet portfolios; namely, those of war, justice and governocion, and word was awaited from Mexico City, as to the exact number of governorships to be allowed the rebels. There is little doubt that 14 will be the final number.

The cabinet portfolios, it is said, probably will be filled as follows:

Minister of war—Gen. Gonzales Salaz.

Minister of Justice—Senor Vasquez Tagle.

Minister of Gobernacion—Dr. Francisco Gasquez Gomez.

In the selection of Gen. Salaz for minister of war and of Senor Tagle for minister of justice the rebels have chosen two men who have not taken active part in the revolution. In fact, Gen. Salaz is one of the foremost figures in the Mexican army.

In Dr. Vasquez Gomez, who has been active in the revolution and who is likely to be minister of gubernacion, the revolutionists will have a man who is a personal friend of Senor De LaBarra, minister of foreign relations and one who is said to be generally acceptable to the government.

The post of minister of gobernacion has no parallel in the American cabinet. The minister of gobernocion has gubernatorial jurisdiction over Mexico's three territories of lower California, Tepic and Quintana Roo and the Federal district, which contains Mexico City.

Dr. Gomez will occupy the office for only a short time. In about four or five months, it is planned, the present revolutionist party, which probably will be known hereafter as "the progressive party" will nominate him for vice president as a running mate to Francisco I. Madero, Jr., the presidential candidate.

These two men opposed President Diaz and Vice President Ramon Corral on the annual re-election ticket a year ago and it was the controversy which arose as to legation of that election which brought about reolution.

It was a quiet day in Juarez. During the day Judge Carbajal received encouraging news from Mexico City, making it possible for both sides to admit that peace was almost an established fact and that a National armistice would be declared within 24 hours. One condition of such an armistice would be that the rebels could use the Federal telegraph lines and army lines on a parity with the Federal government, where they now control the situation.

The feeling is that Gen. Diaz will give way to Senor De LaBarra, as provisional president within two or three months and that a general election will follow within a month or two later.

Diaz to Resign Soon?

Washington, May 16.—President Diaz, of Mexico, probably will resign in two months, according to a telegram received at the White House tonight from Col. Steever, in command of the United States troops at El Paso. The telegram follows:

"Prospect for peace brighter today, and armistice will probably be agreed upon in 24 hours. Madero demands four places in cabinet, one of them Secretary of War, and 14 governorships. Mexican government agrees to give him Gobernacion and Justice, and possibly one other, while the Secretary of War is to be chosen joinly by the two parties. Madero will likely get ten governorships. Diaz to resign after new governors appointed, probably in two months. This is the latest fairly reliable information I can procure."

If you are to vote for a continuance of road improvement and bridge construction, you must register before Saturday.

HON. LOCKE CRAIG IN RALEIGH

Asheville Man Speaks Hopefully of His Nomination for Governorship—Other Affairs of Interest at State Capital.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., May 16.—Hon. Locke Craig, of Asheville, Governor Kitchin's most formidable opponent for the last Democratic nomination for the Governorship and who has since that time been recognized as an active and logical candidate for nomination for Governor in 1912, here to argue appeals in the Supreme Court, was asked concerning matters political and he remarked with characteristic modesty, that it seemed to him the Democrats of North Carolina are determined to give him the nomination.

This, he said, will be a great honor and the Governorship a weighty responsibility, but, "if I am made Governor," he said, "the duties of office shall have my very best efforts in direction of conserving the best interests of the whole people." Mr. Craig says the Democracy in western Carolina is in splendid shape, the best since 1912, and he looks for a great increase in the party vote in 1912.

TREATY WITH GREAT BRITAIN.

Making Progress on Proposed Arbitration With United States.

Washington, May 16.—The proposed treaty of arbitration between the United States and Great Britain, upon which rests the hope o. the English-speaking peoples for a permanent peace between the two great nations and which probably will be a model for peace pacts with other nations, has at last reached the stage, where it is to be presented to the British government for its approval.

Ambassador Bryce, of Great Britain, before the cabinet met today had a half hour conference with President Taft during which certain points in the treaty were thoroughly discussed. This was the final conference of the numerous ones which these advocates of permanent peace have had since the President announced his intention of negotiating with Great Britain for such a treaty.

Officials of the State Department have been constantly at work upon the treaty and today Secretary Knox presented to the cabinet for its approval a tentative draft of the treaty. Apparently it was most satisfactory to the President and his official family as a whole.

Secretary Knox, when leaving the White House, after the cabinet meeting announced that the tentative draft of the treaty probably would be submitted tomorrow to Ambassador Bryce for transmission to the British foreign office. Exchange of notes between the two nations will follow. When the final draft is accepted by both countries, the completed treaty will be signed and submitted to the United States Senate for approval and ratification by that body.

AFTER THE LABOR LEADERS.

Justice Wright Began Proceedings Anew in Federal Court.

Washington, May 16.—Less than 24 hours after the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States yesterday, which revoked the jail sentences of Samuel Gompers, John Mitchell and Frank Morrison, president, vice-president and secretary, respectively, of the American Fedration of Labor, in litigation against the Bucks Stove & Range Company, of St. Louis, Justice Wright, of the District Supreme Court, today began proceedings anew for alleged contempt against the labor officials, which the Supreme Court held yesterday was punishable by fine only.

Speaking of the action of Justice Wright, today, President Gompers said:

"Justice Wright can go just as far as he likes. He will find we are not running away—not even from him."

Justice Wright, who imposed the sentences upon Messrs. Gompers, Mitchell and Morrison, today appointed Joseph J. Darlington, Daniel Davenport and James N. Beck, counsel for the Bucks Stove & Range Company, as a committee to inquire "forthwith" into the question of whether the labor leaders had violated the court's order. They were instructed to report to the court whether, in the opinion of the committee, the labor leaders were guilty of contempt in violating the injunction against the publication of a so-called boycott list in the American Federationist, the official organ of the Federation.

Richmond, Va., May 16.—The Veteran Association of the fifteenth regiment, New Jersey volunteers, 200 strong, arrived here this evening and tomorrow will make a trolley car tour of the city visiting most of the places of historic interest, colonial as well as Confederate. They will go from Richmond to Old Point and Norfolk, returning northward Friday night.

OIL TRUST OPINION DISAPPOINTS TAFT

President is Averse to "Rule of Reason" Feature of Court Decision.

CRITICISM IN WASHINGTON

With Reference to "Reasonable" and "Unreasonable" Monopoly—Was Directly Against Message of the President.

Washington, May 16.—Governmental Washington in all its branches—legislative, executive and judicial—gave over the greater part of today to a discussion of the Supreme Court's disposition of the Standard Oil case.

While there was much gratification in administration circles over the order for the dissolution of the giant corporation, which had been declared "an unreasonable" combination and monopoly in restraint of trade, there unquestionably was also some misgiving as to the interpretation of the anti-trust law giving to courts the right to determine whether or not a monopoly was "reasonable," and declaring a "reasonable" monopoly not to be in contravention of the statute.

President Taft, who a little more than a year ago, in a special message to Congress declared that under Supreme Court precedents there could be no such thing as "reasonable" and "unreasonable" restraints of trade or in other words "good trusts" and "bad trust," was said today to have been rather keenly disappointed that the court should have seen fit to reverse itself in this important matter.

President Taft's message was freely quoted about the capital today and the seeming similarity of his views as to the scope of the anti-trust law to the view expressed by Associate Justice Harlan in his dissenting opinion yesterday, attracted renewed attention to Justice Harlan's position as outlined in his statement to the court.

Justice Harlan's Opinion.

Justice Harlan held that his brother judges had no right to usurp the function of the legislative branch of the government by writing into the statute a differentiation between "reasonable" and "unreasonable". He declared that Congress had resisted all appeals to so amend the act and that there was every reason to believe that such an amendment never could be put through the legislative branch. Under these circumstances, and in their extremity, great aggregations of wealth applied to the court in an effort to have it construe the law in a way that would be a flat reversal of what it had held on two previous occasions.

Justice Harlan declined to be a party to such a reversal and hence his dissenting opinion. He denounced as "the most alarming tendency of the day" the tendency to judicial legislation. Men of power, he said, always were trying to get the courts to do what Congress would not.

About Taft's Message.

President Taft, in his special message to Congress of January 7, 1910, urging a Federal incorporation act, declared that to put the word "reasonable" into the anti-trust statute and thus leave it for the courts to say what was a reasonable restraint of trade, would be to put into the hands of the courts "a power impossible to exercise on any consistent principle which would insure the uniformity of decision essential to good judgment."

"It is to throw upon the courts," he added, "a burden that they have no precedents to enable them to carry, and to give them a power approaching the arbitrary, the abuse of which might involve our judicial system in disaster."

As to the doctrine of "good trusts" and "bad trusts" which the majority opinion of the court as expressed by Chief Justice White seems to have laid down, President Taft, in his message written more than a year ago, says:

"The public, and especially the business public, ought to rid themselves of the idea that such a distinction is practicable or can be introduced into the statute. Certainly, under the present anti-trust law no such distinction exists."

Relying upon the former opinions of the Supreme Court in the so-called trans-Missouri and joint traffic cases, the President said:

"The Supreme Court in several of its decisions has declined to read into the statute the word 'unreasonable' before 'restraint of trade' on the ground that the statute applies to all restraints and does not intend to leave to the court the discretion to determine what is a reasonable restraint of tred."

The apparent reversal in the Standard Oil case of the court's decisions on these former occasions formed the basis of much of the discussion and speculation indulged in here today. Although the President's ideas as to the "rule of reason" seem to be divergent from those of the majority opinion and to coincide more closely with the dissenting views of Justice Harlan, Mr. Taft was quoted by callers today as saying:

"I defer to the decision of the Supreme Court; I am willing to take my law from it."

Some Disappointment.

A FIFTY MILLION BOND ISSUE

Authorized by U. S. Treasury as Result of Panama Canal Expenditures—Not Available at National Banks—Features

Washington, May 16. — Secretary McVeagh today invited popular subscriptions to a $50,000,000 issue of government bonds, to reimburse the treasury general fund for expenditures on account of the Panama Canal.

Treasury officials expect the loan will be largely over subscribed and indistributing the new securities the govrnment's announced intention is to give preference to smaller bidders.

The new securities will bear three per cent., interest payable quarterly, will be free from all National, State or municipal taxation, and will be in denominations of $100, $500 and $1,000. They will be dated June 1st, 1911, and will be payable in 50 years.

By provision of law, the new bonds will not be available to National banks as the basis of circulation. Inasmuch as they are the first the United States ever has issued with such a restriction, much interest is attached to the price they will bring. According to law they cannot be sold at less than par. The premium which the new Panama Canal bonds can command will reflect the National credit of the United States as it compares with that of the great nations of Europe.

Inasmuch as postal savings bank law fires the par value of a postal bank bond bearing two and one-half per cent. interest at $100, it is agreed that the 3 per cent. Panama Canal bonds must bring more than par. How much more ise conjecture. The estimates range from slightly above par to 103.

Checks and postal orders will be accepted for the new bonds—something which never has been done before. Although the issue is designed for private bankers, National banks which bid for the bonds will be allowed to deposit them as security for government deposits.

GLASSCOCK'S MESSAGE.

Asks West Virginia Legislature to Safeguard Against Corruption.

Charleston, W. Va., May 16.—"That candidates for office have been spending large sums of money illegally and corruptly cannot be denied. I know that we cannot legislate honesty into the people, but we can and ought to have laws that will disfranchise those who corrupt the electorate and no man should be permitted to be the beneficiary of a crime committed by him against society."

So declared Governor William E. Glasscock in a special message to the Legislature which convened in special session today in which he pleaded for the enactment of a corrupt practices act, "which will safeguard the ballot boxes of this State." He charged that elections and primaries have been corrupted by lavish use of money.

The governor included certain data with reference to the status of the Virginia debt litigation, appending the recent opinion of the Supreme Court of the United States the request of the Virginia debt commission for a conference between the two States and his reply to that request.

HOFFSTOT IS ACQUITTED.

Charged With Bribery In Connection With Depository Ordinance.

Pittsburg, May 16.—Frank N. Hoffstot, the banker-manufacturer, of New York, was acquitted on the charge of bribery in connection with the bank depository ordinance exposed in the councilmanic graft crusade. The bribery case went to the jury late this afternoon and the verdict was returned in little more than an hour. Hoffstot on the witness stand denied that he had any knowledge of the bribery of councilmen to pass the bank depository ordinance until after the exposure of the councilmanic scandal.

GOVERNOR WILSON ON CORPORATIONS

Strong Address at Berkeley, Cal., With Reference to Their Control.

CONTINUES HIS TOUR WEST

Again Warmly Greeted by Large Audience—Annual Address to Society of University—One of His Feature Speeches.

Berkeley, Cal., May 16.—Governor Woodrow Wilson, of New Jersey, delivered the annual address of the Phi Feta Kappa at the University of California this afternoon. He spoke in the Greek theatre before a large audience, his address dealing with corporations and their control. He said in part:

"We are no longer afraid of our corporations as we used to be, because we are beginning to understand just what they are, just how they can be controlled and made to serve the purposes of our life without governing and controlling us. There was a time when our feeling about them was almost one of panic. We had undoubtedly ourselves created them. There was no disputing the fact that they were our creatures, made by laws which we ourselves had enacted, and had supposed we understood; but we stood amazed at the work of our own hands, and not only amazed, but awed and frightened. It is not a little amusing, as we look back upon our one-time state of mind in this matter; because, having created the corporations, we can certainly alter them if we please, and control them in any way that we choose. They are not actual persons. We made them—God did not; and we can alter the work of our own hands as we will.

"The trouble with the corporation is that it is an invention. It is not a moral unit, as a person is. A person has a definite, calculable character. His neighbors and associates, at any rate, know what kind of a man he is. They know the motives that govern him, and the influences that will control him. They know how he can be restrained by opinion and punished by law. But a corporation escapes these measures and restraints. It is not anybody in particular. Its very actions are often, if you look into them, just a series of moral compromises made of different people as can be put together in one determination or action. Therefore, the ancient complaint that a corporation has no body to be kicked or soul to be damned.

"Neither is the corporation a social unit. Those who hold its stocks are generally scattered through a score of communities, and those who manage it are often, likewise, residents of different parts of the country, affected by different bodies of opinion, governed by different motives and environments. And so it is hard to bring to bear upon a corporation the judgment of any community, or of any State even. It is a device for combining a very large variety of persons, and often a large variety of interests, over the space of many varied sections of the country.

"Most corporations are joint stock companies. Now a joint stock company gets its money by throwing out a dragnet for the savings or earnings of individuals in all parts of the country. It offers its stock for sale. It does not care who buys the stock. What it wishes is to sell it and get what it fetches and put the proceeds of many sales in a common fund, which is to be its capital and means of doing business. Its stockholders live here, there and everywhere. They from time to time, sell their stock to other persons—so that the corporation does not, for any calculable period, consist of the same body of persons. It is like an indefinite partnership which is constantly forming and dissolving by the changing hands of its stock. Its funds are managed by a central body, a board of directors and a group of officers who are supposed to be representatives of the stockholders, but who very often seem to have no consciousness at all that they are representatives. You will find them speaking of the interests of the corporation as if they were private interests—very often as if they were their own special private interests, into which the public has no more right to look than it has to look into their dwellings or their safe deposit vaults, or into any part of their private affairs.

"The first thing that it is necessary to do in order to approach the corporation without awe and without doubt that it can be controlled, is to realize that it is doing business upon a basis and in a way which cannot properly be described as private at all. It is doing business for that part of the people that has subscribed to its stocks. It is one of the many instrumentalities by which we act together, not separately, as in the old days when men undertook business on their own private capital or in combination with only a trusted partner or two. We must realize, therefore, that it is no intrusion on the part of the public who, by subscription, are supporting these things, to look into the affairs of corporations when they please, and to treat them as in some very important sense public, not private instrumentalities. By permitting them to use the aggregate capital of communities instead of individual pri-

SERIOUS BREAK IN THE HOUSE

Occurred in Democratic Ranks As Result of Charges Against Rules Committee—Refers to Trust Investigations.

Washington, May 16.—Charges that Democratic members of the Committee on Rules were seeking to usurp functions of a caucus by nominating the members of committees which will investigate the so-called steel and sugar trusts, created today the most serious break that has occurred in the Democratic ranks of the House since the opening of Congress.

Chairman Henry was denounced by Representative Fitzgerald, chairman of the Appropriations Committee with having made an "unwarranted assumption of authority" for the rules committee. Other Democrats declared that the action of the Rules Committee if ratified by the House, would be a complete abrogation of the principles for which the Democrats had stood, namely, the selection of committees by action of the Democratic caucus.

Two lists of names, one being the proposed steel trust committee and the other the sugar trust committee were submitted by Mr. Henry in the form of privileged resolutions, which he asked the House to adopt. Immediately questioned by Democrats who had not been consulted as to the authority by which the Rules Committee offered these names, Mr. Henry said about 150 Democrats had approved the Democratic list and Republican members were named by Minority Leader Mann.

The Steel Trust Investigating Committee was approved before the Democrats woke up to the full effect of the situation. The resultant fight fell upon the Sugar Trust Committee; and a continuance of the struggle finally was averted by the action of Democratic Leader Underwood in adjudging the House while the resolution was still pending. Mr. Henry denied that there had been any assumption of authority, or that the action of the Rules Committee would defeat the whole Democratic principle of the election of committees by the party caucus and the whole House.

Democrats protested that they had never been consulted by the Rules Committee. The Republicans kept silent, except for occasional whispered suggestions to some of the angry Democrats.

"I protest against a few gentlemen getting together and deciding who shall go on special committees and then bringing the lists into this House as the selections of the majority," said Mr. Sisson.

There was no complaint as to the Democratic personnel as to the two proposed committees. The Steel Trust Investigating Committee, which was duly elected by the House follows:

Representatives Stanley, Kentucky; Bartlett, Georgia; Beall, Texas; Littleton, New York; McGillicuddy, Maine; Olmstead, Pennsylvania; Young, Michigan; Sterling, Illinois; and Danforth, New York.

The Sugar Trust Investigating Committees as proposed by Chairman Henry but not acted upon consists of Representatives Hardwich, Georgia, chairman; Garrett, Tennessee; Sulzer, New York; Jacoway, Arkansas; Raker, California; Malby, New York; Fordney, Michigan; Madison, Kansas, and Hinds, Maine.

MORE SOLONS INDICTED.

Bribe Solicitation Charged In Ohio—Evidence.

Columbus, Ohio, May 16.—Senator Edgar T. Crawford, of Carroll county, and Representative A. Clark Lowry, of Lawrence county, Republicans, and Representative Owen J. Evans, of Stark county, Democrat, were indicted today by the grand jury for bribe solicitation.

Crawford is alleged to have asked $200 from W. H. Cook, of Springfield, secretary of the Ohio Butchers' and Growers' Association, in connection with the trading stamp legislation.

Lowry, against whom an indictment had previously been returned on the evidence of detectives, is now charged with soliciting $1,500 from Opha Moore, secretary of the Ohio Manufacturers' Association for his vote on the nine-hour day for women bill.

Evans is said to alleged to have solicited of $650 from John F. Weiss, of Canton, Ohio, secretary of the Stark Tuscarawas Brewery for his vote in the city local option bills.

All the indicted legislators entered their appearance and gave bond of $5,000 each. The trials of indicted assemblymen will begin Thursday.

MOBILE'S ANNIVERSARY.

Resolutions Regarding Approaching Celebration in the House.

Washington, May 16.—A House resolution congratulating the city of Mobile, Ala., upon the approaching attainments of its 200th anniversary and accepting an invitation to be present at the proposed celebration of that event, was adopted today by the Senate. While the resolution was pending Senator Johnston spoke eulogistically of Mobile, saying that it had existed under three governments and is one of the most beautiful and prosperous cities in the country. He expressed the hope that every member of the Senate would attend.

VETERANS UNITE IN FEATURE DAY

Orator at Little Rock Reunion Blames Lincoln for the Civil War.

THE OFFICERS ARE ELECTED

Norfolk Man is Chosen Commander-in-Chief—Important Day of the Gathering—Some Features of Reunion.

Little Rock, Ark., May 16.—"I hold that the responsibility for the Civil War, with all the blood and treasure that it cost and all the desolation and ruin that it wrought justly rests upon Abraham Lincoln and his advisors."

This, the declaration of Dr. R. C. Cave, of St. Louis, who delivered the annual oration at today's reunion of United Confederate Veterans, formed the feature of today's proceedings at the great gathering.

Greeting from President Taft to which a message in kind will be sent in response tomorrow; the oration by Dr. Cave, addresses of welcome and the naming of committees made up today's proceedings.

The address of General James F. Smith, commanding the Arkansas division, opening the convention referred to the events of the war of 1861-65, the days of reconstruction, the organization of the veterans and the 21 years history of that organization.

After the invocation by the Rev. R. Lin Cave, chaplain general, the United Confederate choirs led by Mrs. J. Griff Edwards, of Portsmouth, Va., sang Southern songs.

Governor George W. Danoghey, of Arkansas, welcomed the delegates on behalf of the State. Dr. H. H. Hartzog, of the United Sons of Confederate Veterans in a welcoming address roused the assembly to frequent cheers by his promise to the veterans that their descendants would keep alive the memories of the war.

To the addresses of several veterans through which ran the spirit of civic pride and desire to accord honor to the old soldiers, Commander-in-chief General George W. Gordan in reply praised the city for its hospitality extended the veterans.

After paying a tribute to the South, Dr. Cave in his address discussed the memories kept alive by reunions of the veterans and their descendants and deplored any efforts to keep alive bitter sectional feeling. He said, "I most earnestly desire to see the people of both sections ruled by the spirit of fraternity and harmonious working together for the welfare of our common country; but I don't think the men of the South should be asked or expected to sacrifice the truth of history and go down to posterity branded as rebels and traitors to secure that end."

A resolution was adopted instructing the adjutant general to have the oration of Dr. Cave printed in pamphlet form for distribution to the various camps of Confederate veterans and throughout the sons' organizations.

As the time for choosing the place of meeting for the reunion next year is tomorrow, rivalry between Oklahoma City, Houston, Tex.; Macon, Ga.; and Jacksonville, Fla., grew keener. Literature was distributed and campaigners are kept among the delegates. Supporters for Macon and the Florida city are most in evidence.

Precedent, it is contended, calls for giving the reunion one year to a city West and the next to one East of the Mississippi river.

United Sons of Confederate Veterans elected the following officers:

Commander in chief, W. G. Pritchard, Norfolk, Va.

Executive Council:

Past commander in chief, C. J. Owens, Washington; W. W. Old, Norfolk, Va.; J. P. Norfleet, Memphis; Thomas E. Powe, St. Louis.

Department commanders elected are: Army of Northern Virginia, Geo. R. Wyman, Louisville, Ky.; Army of Tennessee, John L. Moulton, Mobile, Aal.; Trans-Mississippi, W. N. Brandon, Little Rock. Historian general, Thomas M. Owen, Montgomery, Ala.

To the retiring commander in chief a loving cup was presented.

An amendment which would have changed the name of the organization to Sons of Confederate Veterans, instead of United Sons of Confederate Veterans was voted down, the margin being eight votes less than the required two-thirds.

It is declared there are more old Dixie Warriors gathered for this reunion than have been assembled since the conflict between the States.

JOHNSON TOOK THE COUNT.

Verdict Awarded Sculptor Against Champion Pugilist.

New York, May 16.—Jack Johnson, champion heavyweight pugilist, took the count again today. As in California, the law was the victor and it landed a knockout punch on his wallet to the tune of $1,100. Certaino Sciarrina, a sculptor, who made a bust of Johnson, was awarded this verdict.

Johnson, the sculptor testified, posed for him and expressed his pleasure with the bust, but failed to pay for it.

DISORDER IN LUMBERTON.

Young Men Before Court—Rewards for False Fire Alarm Fiends.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Lumberton, N. C., May 16.—In the Mayor's court this afternoon, which lasted from 3 to 6 o'clock, the young men who were up for gambling, were bound over to the higher court. It is not known if the cases will be called at the special session now in progress.

One of the most high-handed outrages which has ever been attempted in this section failed last night because the villain who made the attempt was not up to his business. When Clerk of the Court Skipper went to his office after supper to do some work, he was unable to get any light and phoned Mr. Gerald Pittman at the power house that he had no light and asked him to come and investigate. Mr. Pittman was promptly on hand and upon investigation it was found that some one had been tampering with the main switch in the basement of the building. A wire had been wrapped around the switch in such a manner that when the current was turned on every fuse in the building was blown. Electricians say that if the wire had been wrapped a little differently, every fuse at the plant would also have been destroyed and the whole town would have been in darkness, and besides, many thousand dollars of damage would have been done. The whatever it was that tried to do the job—it wasn't a man—had its nerve with it, as the criminal court was in session when the dirty work was done. The town commissioners in session tonight decided to offer a reward of $200 for the arrest and conviction of the parties who tried the job.

At 1:40 A. M. today a false alarm of fire was turned in, but owing to the fact that the wires had been tampered with, the only way to tell where the alarm came in from was to go and examine the different boxes. At 11:30 tonight another false alarm was turned in and the commissioners have offered a reward of $100 for either of the parties who turned in the alarm.

While the Board was in session tonight Mr. Gerald Pittman was elected superintendent of the water and light plant and advertisement for applicants to appear May 22nd, has been withdrawn.

NEWBERN'S TICKET WINDOW.

Need for Better Accommodations—Street Paving Muddle—Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Newbern, N. C., May 16.—It is reported that the N. S. Railroad and the A. C. L. will install the extra mileage window in the union station here in accordance with the law passed at the last session of the Legislature. It has been a mystery to nearly all citizens here as to how and why Newbern was exempted by the Corporation Commission. A slight examination on their part would have shown them, what at least hundreds saw last week. The statements sent out that the average number of tickets exchanged here was 28 per day—was believed by no one here who knew anything about the situation. The actual number from the best of information—in recent months—has been twice 28 or over. The railroad company sent a man and asked for signatures for a petition to exempt Newbern, but the petition did not find a hearty favor. However, the railroads are to be congratulated in now deciding to install the extra window—it is badly needed and the only wonder is that they did not recognize it from the first.

Paving work on Pollock street is temporarily halted. The brick have been placed along the street, ready for laying and the grading completed but when the brick were tested in the "rattler" as provided in the contract, they did not come up to the requirements. The Augusta Brick & Paving Company, which is doing the work, found fault with the rattler and declared it defective. So the rattler has been rebuilt and further tests will be made, but at present the work is at a standstill and the street in bad condition.

CHARLES HYDE'S DEFENSE.

New York City Chamberlain Pleads Not Guilty—Charges.

New York, May 16.—Charles Hyde, the city chamberlain, today pleaded not guilty to an indictment superceding the original indictment against him and was given until May 26th to change his plea. The new indictment charges that Hyde used the power of his office to induce Joseph G. Robin, as principal shareholder of the Northern Bank of New York, to make loans to the Carnegie Trust Company, and that the arrangement between them was to the benefit and advantage of Hyde, thereby constituting bribery under the penal code.

Richmond, Va., May 16.—Under the will of Miss Louisa C. Nalle, of Hanover county, Virginia, who died several weeks ago, the Richmond Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, becomes heir to a legacy of $25,000 to be used for the purpose of carrying on its work. The announcement was made today.

Washigton, May 16.—The Senate today again failed to elect a president pro tempore. Two ballots were taken, the vote being as follows: Gallinger 29; Bacon 30; Clapp 7; Lodge 1; Tillman 1.

NEGRO COOK DROWNED.

Chas. Moore Thought to Have Fallen Overboard from Lighter.

Capt. N. E. Wheatley, of the barque Nanticoke, of Baltimore, Md., in port loading cross-ties at Point Peter, reported to Assistant Chief of Police C. W. Woolard last night that his cook, Chas. Moore, a bright mulatto, disappeared about 8 o'clock in the evening, and that it was thought that he had fallen overboard from a lighter and was drowned. The negro came across the river in the afternoon for Capt. Wheatley's mail and appeared to be drinking some when he returned. The negro and Capt. Wheatley came over again late in the afternoon and the negro was told to be ready at 7:30 o'clock to return to the barque. When Capt. Wheatley returned to the wharf he found the negro asleep and aroused him. When they arrived at the barque the negro got on a lighter while Capt. Wheatley went aboard the boat to put up some things he had purchased while in the city. Returning in a few minutes, Capt. Wheatley discovered that the negro was gone. A thorough search was made, but no trace of the negro could be found. The negro was about 37 years old and his home was in Norfolk, Va.

NO TRACE OF HORSE.

Officers Search in Vain for Animal Stolen Yesterday Morning.

The police department was the busiest yesterday it has been in two years or more in an effort to capture the negro who stole Mounted Officer Frank George's horse early yesterday morning and to recover the horse, which was one of the best in the police department, but up to last midnight their efforts had counted for nothing. The search will be continued and it is believed that the horse will be recovered and the thief apprehended within a few days. It is thought that the negro is on his way to Newbern. Chief of Police Fowler yesterday morning notified nearly every town in this section of the theft and asked the officers to look out for the thief and horse. Officer George and Officer J. S. Lane left early yesterday morning in pursuit of the negro and went three miles beyond Folkstone before returning to the city last night. Officer George is satisfied that the negro went in that direction. Special Officer Williams made a trip on the train in the afternoon to a point above here, but could get no trace of the animal.

Rev. Mr. Adams in Durham.

The Durham Sun Monday afternoon contained the following editorial reference to a visit to that city of Rev. G. T. Adams, pastor of Fifth Street Methodist Church: "Within our gates Sunday was a guest that is beloved by a large majority of Durham citizens, and it is with the greatest of pleasure his former members had the opportunity of again hearing Rev. G. T. Adams, who is now stationed in Wilmington. He delivered a touching address on 'Mother's Day' at the Young Men's Christian Association Sunday afternoon."

—Mrs. Catherine Ritter died at her home, No. 506 Queen street, at 5 o'clock yesterday morning. She was 61 years old and is survived by one brother. Mrs. Ritter was a consistent member of Sixth Street Advent Christian Church and had many friends who learned with regrt of her passing. The funeral will be held at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

W. J. BRYAN'S OPINION.

Will Make Trust Question More of Issue Than in Recent Years.

Toronto, Ont., May 16.—William Jennings Bryan, here on a lecture tour, said today, regarding the Standard Oil decision:

"This decision is likely to make the trust question more of an issue than it has been in recent years.

"While on the face of it, the decision seems a victory for the government, it virtually amends the anti-trust law by constructing it to prohibit not all restraint of trade, but only such restraint as the courts, after each lengthy litigation, may decide to be unreasonable."

WHAT IS DOING IN COLUMBUS

Rains Fell in Some Sections Saturday. Strawberry Crop—Highway Talk. Crazy Syrian—Waccamaw Club—Otherf Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Whiteville, N. C., May 16.—Good rains fell Saturday around Clarkton, Evergreen and in sections of Robeson county, but it is as dry as a bone elsewhere in this county. In several sections farmers are meeting in their churches and praying for rain. Rev. J. J. Adams contends that the Bible admonishes prayer for rain.

Unless it rains in the next few days the strawberry crop will be gathered and all sold. Already many of the buyers have left and pickers are returning home. The general estimate is that something over half an average berry crop will be made, but the high price about makes up for the shortage.

Farmers are getting worried about their cotton. Not one-tenth of a stand is up. It is too dry to set out tobacco, and everybody is holding their hands, waiting for it to rain.

Last evening two Syrians brought from Chadbourn a Syrian youth, about 16 years of age, and who had all at once gone crazy. He had only landed in this country a few weeks and joined his brother at Chadbourn, who is a peddlar. The youth was locked up by the sheriff in jail until some disposition can be made of him. The youth was almost unmanageable and fought and kicked at everyone who approached him.

Messrs. M. G. Cook, E. M. Nance and Bruce Powell, of Fair Bluff, came to Whiteville yesterday. They say their people are anxious to have the Wilmington-to-Charlotte Highway pass through Fair Bluff and will go to work at once and build a splendid road across the Lumber river swamp if that route is adopted. They say while the tobacco crop will be short their warehouses are getting ready to handle the lion's share of what is made.

A number of parties in this county pay no attention to the new fish law, and taking advantage of the low stage of the water in the streams are cleaning them of the finny tribe with nets and other devices. Parties are on the outlook for these fishermen and will prosecute offenders to the extent of the law if evidence can be had.

Mr. W. C. Page, of Wilmington, spent Sunday in Whiteville. We understand that he contemplates moving to Whiteville and opening a jewelry store here.

The club house of the Waccamaw Club is now being built on the shore of Lake Waccamaw, and it will be a modern building. The cost will be something over $5,000 and it will be completed in time for Summer use.

Mr. Clyde Council, chairman of the Wilmington-to-Charlotte Highway in Columbus county, says that with the exception of a short stretch of road between Whiteville and Chadbourn they had a splendid road built through Columbus county and he was ready to open up whenever the word was given. Mr. Council, in a quiet way, has gone to work and completed his section of the highway. He is now waiting for the other counties to do their part.

Wm. B. STEWART DEAD.

Prominent Citizen of Sampson—Bond Issue Carried—Accidents.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Clinton, N. C., May 16.—William B. Stewart, one of the most prominent citizens of Sampson county, died at his home here today after a lingering illness. He was a native of Chapel Hill, but came to Clinton early in life. He was a large manufacturer of lumber until some two years ago, when his health forced him to give up active business. He had been prominently identified with the business life of Clinton for more than 30 years, and there was no man whose judgment was more highly valued or whose words were more highly regarded.

A man who had dealings with him of any nature had in him an abiding confidence which was in no instance ever abused. His name was a synonym for the strictest integrity and his life was a fulfillment of the golden rule. The funeral will be conducted tomorrow afternoon from the Baptist church, of which he had from early manhood been a devoted member. Among the near relatives surviving him, besides his widowed wife, are his venerable father, Rev. J. L. Stewart, of Clinton; four sisters, Mrs. H. W. Battle, of Charlottesville, Va.; Mrs. James T. Murphy, of Washington, D. C.; Mrs. L. A. Bethune, and Miss Mary Stewart, of Clinton, and four sons, H. L. Stewart, of Clinton; H. B. Stewart, of Wilson; James A. Stewart, of Yuma, Arizona, and W. B. Stewart, of Clinton.

At an election had here today a bond issue was carried almost without opposition to building a new school building or repair the old one as the trustees may elect to do.

Stewart Bethune, the 14-year-old son of L. A. Bethune, is now thought to be out of danger from the wound received when he was accidentally shot through the left ankle by another boy while on a fishing excursion a few days ago.

EAST CAROLINA DIOCESE.

Distinguishd Church Body to Hold Sessions in Fayetteville.

(Fayetteville Observer.)

The 28th annual council of the diocese of East Carolina will meet in St. John's Episcopal church Saturday next at 9 o'clock P. M. The Saturday night meeting is only for organization. This meeting will be followed by divine services on Sunday morning, afternoon and evening.

The first meeting (then the Convention of the diocese of North Carolina) held in Fayetteville was in 1818. This will be the twelfth meeting in St. John's, the council having met here in the years 1818, '28, '37, '45, '51, '52 '73, '79, '88, '95, 1903. In 1818 there were present four clerical and seven lay deelgates from the whole State—thirty-three clerical and about 150 lay delegates were entitled to seats in the Council of 1910. The State is now divided into three conventions, North Carolina, East Carolina, and Asheville.

The following notes will doubtless be of interest:

The Journal of 1818 says: "Divine service was performed by Rev. John Avery and a discourse suited to the occasion delivered by Rev. A. Empie, after which the Holy Communion was administered.

"The following clergymen were pres: Rev. Bethel Judd, rector of St. John's ayetteville; Rev. Adam Empie, rector of St. James', Wilmington; Rev. John Avery, rector St. Paul's, Edenton; Rev. Richard S. Mason, rec- St. Paul's, Edenton, and Rev. John Phillips, a visiting clergyman from Virginia; and the following laymen: Messrs. John Winslow and John A. Cameron, St. John's, Fayetteville; Dr. Armand J. De Rosset and Marsden Campbell, of St. John's Wilmington; Josiah Collins, Jr., Esq., St. Paul's, Edenton, and John W. Guion, Esq., Christ Church, Newbern, and Mr. Robert Davis, representing St. Jude's, Orange county, which was admitted at this meeting. It was moved and carried, That all lay members of the standing committee be, for the present year, elected from Fayetteville; that the whole number be seven and that Revs. Messrs. Judd and Empie be the clerical and Messrs. J. Winslow, J. A. Cameron, P. I. Tillinghast, Sr., C. Mallett and N. Kershaw be the lay members of the same.

"On motion, Resolved, That Revs. Messrs. Judd, Mason, Avery and Empie be appointed as clerical, and Messrs. John Winslow, of Fayetteville, Josiah Collins, of Edenton, John Stanley, of Newbern, and Marsden Campbell, of Wilmington, as lay delegates to the next General Convention."

In 1828, the next meeting in Fayetteville, St. John's was represented by Rev. P. W. Wiley, rector, and the following laymen, Dr. T. N. Cameron, Hon. Robert Strange (the grandfather of Bishop Strange, who will be ex-officio president of the council), John Huske and John W. Wright.

Mr. Edward L. Winslow was elected secretary of the convention, a position which he held for many years.

New York, May 16.—Mrs. Hetty Green is to have her own office for the first time in her notable career as a financier. It was learned today that she has taken a lease of rooms in a big office building in the Wall street district, next to that recently rented by William E. Corey, former president of the United States Steel Corporation.

OTTUMWA WOMAN CURED

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Ottumwa, Iowa.—"For years I was almost a constant sufferer from female trouble in all its dreadful forms; shooting pains all over my body, sick headache, spinal weakness, dizziness, depression, and everything that was horrid. I tried many doctors in different parts of the United States, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done more for me than all the doctors. I feel it my duty to tell you these facts. My heart is full of gratitude to you for my cure."—Mrs. Harriet E. Wampler, 524 S. Ransom Street, Ottumwa, Iowa.

Consider This Advice.

No woman should submit to a surgical operation, which may mean death, until she has given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial.

This famous medicine, made only from roots and herbs, has for thirty years proved to be the most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism. Women residing in almost every city and town in the United States bear willing testimony to the wonderful virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write her for advice. Her advice is free, confidential, and always helpful.

The holy communion will be celebrated by the bishop, assisted by some of the clergy.

The session of the convention will last through Wednesday, Thursday and Friday and the business matters that need attention to be disposed of during the morning and evening sessions. The night sessions will be of a more attractive nature to the public, though all of the meetings are open to the public and they are cordially invited to attend them. A Reader Cures His Constipation—Try It Free

Simple way for any family to retain the good health of all its members

The editors of "Health Hints" and "Questions and Answers" have one question that is put to them more often than any other, and which, strangely enough, they find the most difficult to answer. That is "How can I cure my constipation?"

Dr. Caldwell, an eminent specialist in diseases of the stomach, liver and bowels has looked the whole field over, has practised the specialty for forty years and is convinced that the ingredients contained in what is called Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin has the best claim to attention from constipated people.

Its success in the cure of stubborn constipation has done much to displace the use of salts, waters, strong cathartics and such things. Syrup Pepsin, by training the stomach and bowel muscles to again do their work naturally, and with its tonic ingredients strengthening the nerves, brings about a lasting cure. Among its strongest supporters are Mr. John Gravelino of 98 Milwaukee Ave., Detroit, Mich., Mr. J. A. Vernon of Oklahoma City and thousands of others. It can be obtained of any druggist at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle, or if you want to try it first a free sample bottle can be obtained by writing the doctor.

Dr. Caldwell does not feel that the purchase of his remedy ends his obligation. He has specialized in stomach, liver and bowel diseases for over forty years and will be pleased to give the reader any advice on the subject free of charge. All are welcome to write him. Whether for the medical advice or the free sample address him Dr W. B. Caldwell, 541 Caldwell building Monticello, Ill.

No, Pauline, a man's pocket is not a trap just because he is liable at any time to catch his wife in it.

Find out what Wilmington needs and take a short cut to it before the other fellow sees it. When a thing looks good get it now.

We don't think much of any educational system that doesn't pay teachers enough salary to make them love their work to such an extent as to adopt it for a life time profession.

"Where do the chorus girls spend the Summer?" inquires the Houston Chronicle. Don't know, but we've seen those as could spend it playing as like they were a clothes tree.

It crops out every now and then that President Taft is bigger than the G. O. P. Take the G. O. P's. money away from it, and it would be afraid to go through a country graveyard after night.

A contemporary remarks: "The old fashioned drinking cup must go." If a campaign is made against it we may expect sooner or later to see the drinking cup become a derelict alongside the horn, the schooner and the stein.

Another one of those college professors has been heard from. He says investigation enables him to announce that "a woman chooses her husband by blind psychic impulses." Might be a little blind to start with, but she soon gets her eyes open.

An exchange persistently remarks that "Senator Lorimer continues to hold on to his seat in the Senate." We have long ago been satisfied that he would hold right on to it to show his appreciation of what cost his Illinois friends $100,000 to buy for him.

This we get from the Rockingham Post: "Mr. J. M. Dockery has contracted to clear out the right of way for a number of miles for the electric line from Blewett's to Raleigh." That looks like business. How about the Wilmington end of that transmission line?

A Washington correspondent says: "The new private secretary of President Taft is a Michiavelli, a Talleyrand and a Petronius Arbiter all in one." He gets $7,500 a year on account of his versatility, but no doubt he'd like to be Andrew Carnegie, John D. Rockefeller and J. Pierpont Morgan all in one. How about it, bud?

Now comes the Charlotte Observer making this pass: "To the counties of eastern North Carolina: What reply do you make to those Catawba county strawberries that are as big as peaches?" That is doing pretty well for those Catawba fellows, but will they please state what variety of Pender county berries they are planting in their vain effort to beat the original?

A Paris theologian has written an article in a French journal to prove that Judas Iscariot was not a traitor. This will be consoling to the Iscariot family, if they know themselves, but if there are any of them they haven't even kept up the family name, much less kept a tag on the family tree. Probably Judas didn't know what caused him to go out and hang himself.

The man who actually conceived the idea of the automobile, didn't carry out his idea. Some other fellow caught on to the idea, made a machine and went down the pike hailed as an inventer. Men who think and don't act had just as well not bother about thinking. The man who gets the simoleon is the one who has an idea, takes the initiative to carry it out and is the constructive genius who makes something worth something.

INDUSTRIES FOR PROSPERITY.

While the greater Chamber of Commerce will soon get down to business for further developing the fine city-making assets of Wilmington, it can enter at once upon a vigorous campaign for the establishment of manufacturing industries. In this connection, The Star is sure the people of Wilmington will be gratified that such is the first thought of the Chamber's new president, Mr. M. J. Corbett, who is already getting his forces in line to begin the movement to promote the progress of our city.

President Corbett sounded the keynote on Monday when he declared for "Manufactures First." He met with the newly elected executive committeee and it was organized at noon on Monday for the work it is to have in hand this year. The Star yesterday contained an account of the proceedings, and the best part of it was that the Chamber's new president "declared himself a strong advocate of manufactures and industries of all descriptions for the development of Wilmington," and that "this will be the first consideration of the new administration."

This sounds good, and if the citizens of Wilmington will unite with President Corbett on that line and follow it to the finish, this will be a new Wilmington in the next year or so. Wilmington needs manufacturing establishments and when that is so self-evident, it requires no argument in that behalf. When a question is free from doubt, it furnishes no room for argument to remove doubt or objections, and when a proposition is so obvious that it proves itself, argument is wasted.

On that need of the city, we are unanimously agreed, so the thing to do is for the boosters to induce our citizens to establish manufacturing industries and invite others to come here to do the same. However, we need not wait on the other fellow to come here and build Wilmington for us, but we can start the ball a rolling and then call for outside help afterwards.

It is settled that we need manufacturing establishments, and, as to that, The Star thinks our city is better suited for industries than most any city in the country. In the first place, our water and rail transportation facilities make Wilmington an unequalled distributing point, and that is an advantage of great magnitude. The consideration of power is an important one, and with our fine facilities to get ample coal supply, both by water and rail, that ought to settle it so far as the possibility of power is concerned. So far as the comparative advantages of electric power and coal derived power are involved, it is generally agreed that it is a stand-off, for even manufacturers in the cotton factory belt are found arguing the point, some for electricity and some for coal. Then we have a Belt Railroad entirely encircling the city and connecting with ocean navigation and all the lines of railway, while there is also economy and advantage in the fine climate of Wilmington during the Winter and Summer. We have looked into the comparative advantages of several cities as to manufacturing, and we have failed to find any so admirably equipped as Wilmington. We must all know what these advantages are and let them be known far and wide.

Little as some of us think of it, new factories built in Wilmington recently are employing several hundred more people than were employed last year, so there isn't any use to waste time considering the advantages of industries to the city. We already have several new ones demonstrating what they can do, and all we have to do is to build more ourselves and get others built by new comers. They needn't be all of one kind of industry, but we must make a campaign for diversified industries, first, last and all the time. We are not stuck on "waiting for the other fellow" to build them, but lets get a move on ourselves and make the other fellow come and see what he is missing.

PRINTER'S INK BEATS ALL.

To advertise the resources of a country or the advantages of a city, nothing beats printer's ink — the printer's ink that covers the pages of folders and booklets and makes the publicity articles show up in the columns of newspapers that reach the kind of people wanted in a community—whether they be capitalists, agriculturists, or working people. As a matter of fact, there is only one economical way to spread abroad the attractions and advantages of a city or community and that is by means of the printing press.

Get up the right sort of matter and have it printed so it will reach thousands and it beats meeting and talking, although talk is not so very cheap after all. A "good word" for a town goes a long way, for we know a town which gained a valuable manufacturing plant because one man spoke of the town, drew a diagram of it, pointed it out on the map and told about its advantages.

We now have on our desk printed matter boosting Oklahoma and one cent brought it. It tells more than a speiler could tell, and it tells the story in a more attractive way than an orator could. However, the talker is needed when a direct proposition is to be made, and right now Oklahoma has its representatives in Wilmington offering propositions concerning the plans to make Oklahoma a greater State.

The Star is constantly getting booster matter from the Pacific, from Texas, from everywhere, and it is time that Wilmington should get in the game. It will bring more results from the work for Wilmington than any other agency that can be devised. That depends, however, upon how the matter is written and printed, and where it is distributed, but those are only the details in connection with an advertising campaign.

Let Wilmington get the printing habit at once, and watch for results. This is not written for the benefit of any print shop, but for Wilmington.

SWAT THE DEMAGOGUES.

An old fashioned Democrat says he thinks the greatest danger to the country is from the arrant demagogues, who pose as statesmen. Of course, if there is enough of them, he has spoken correctly, and so far as we are concerned, we don't care to cultivate any amicable relations with them.

One of the sad sights we run across is the individual who mistakes his little old measly prejudice for conviction. A fellow like that is a shrimp, but at the same time he's lots better than the man who assassinates his own convictions, panders to the public prejudice or truckles to the convictions of others for the purpose of getting an office.

This last reflection is a mere hint of what a demagogue is, but the only hope for such is to reach the point where he wouldn't recommend himself for dog pelter. Of course, he is then ready to go into his hole and pull the hole in after him, and it would be about the best thing that could happen to North Carolina and the United States of America if all the demagogues were to take that notion.

The hopeless demagogue, however, is the one who will surrender his party or petty convictions, when his two-by-four ambitions are disappointed; and desert to another party to get what he wants. If he is disappointed in his last efforts to land, he is sure to get sour and bitter and finally finds himself transformed into a chronic grouch. When, therefore, a fellow finds out his name is Mud, he is no use to himself, nor to his community, nor to his State, and for that reason it is hoped no new demagogues will sprout in North Carolina. We would hate to be called on to express our real opinion of demagogues, but we don't mind saying that the whole bunch ought to be batted right out of the box. This is really intended in a charitable way to discourage demagoguery.

Sunday was Mother's Day, but most every day is mother's day in the kitchen if her girls don't take turns at it. "What is more beautiful than a girl helping her mother?" Why, it's two girls helping mother.

A New York woman killed her husband to save his soul. Some evangelists and "unco gude" people abuse others on the plea of saving their souls but they haven't yet gotten to the killing point. Some people so hate wrong that they also hate the wrongdoer. Yet they claim to be the followers of the only One who loved sinners and lost His life in His mission to save their souls.

Says the Newbern Sun: "Henderson county in this State fears destruction by a volcano. A shock has been felt there several times recently, and smoke can be seen arising from the summit of the mountains." There are quite a lot of extinct volcanoes in the North Carolina mountains and even in the Piedmont country. Lava and cinder beds can be found in the vicinity of Charlotte, and how much farther east we are not prepared to say. Hot springs in the mountains come from the depths of sleeping volcanoes.

CURRENT COMMENT.

A jingo is the sort of coward who crawls under the bed and leaves his wife to kill the bear.—Greensboro News.

North Carolina has the distinction of leading all others in the manufacture of "moonshine" liquor. Quite a nice reputation for a "dry" State, isn't it?—Newbern Sun.

The Virginian-Pilot's Washington correspondent reports an unconfirmed rumor to the effect that Colonel Roosevelt has asked to be allowed to command the American army of invasion, should intervention in Mexico become necessary, and that President Taft, in that event will grant the request. The incredibability attaching to this lies chiefly in the last clause. No doubt "Teddy-the-Teeth" would like to head the intervening army, should intervention occur, and equally probable is it that no sense of modesty or underestimation of his own military abilities would restrain him from proffering a request for the Command. But it is almost inconceivable that President Taft would even seriously consider the granting of the request. Moreover, could he, if he would? What and where is the authority, if any, which would enable the President to take a civilian, even though he be so distinguished a citizen as Mr. Roosevelt, and place him in command of the United States army?—Norfolk Virginian-Pilot.

Apropos of the forthcoming special election in Maine to determine whether or not Prohibition shall remain in the State Constitution, the Philadelphia Record remarks that, if news from the Pine Tree Commonwealth is to be relied on, "Whatever Prohibition there is can be found only in the Constitution." So it likewise is in the 'dry" States of the South. Judging by press reports and the business of the express companies, Prohibition in Georgia, North Carolina, Tennessee and other localities where traffic in liquor is under the ban of law exists chiefly, if not solely, in the statute books.—Norfolk Virginia-Pilot.

Senator Benjamin Tillman refuses to die to accommodate the reporters. On yesterday he gave out an interview concerning his physical condition which had the old-time ring in it. The while he masticated a goodly portion of bacon, potatoes, cabbage, beans, cornbread, steak and a few other delicacies, he reminded the scribe that instead of being a "dead one" he was decidedly himself again, ready for the fray, with pitchfork aimed at the center of attack. One of the brainiest statesmen ever sent up from the South, it is a source of keen rejoicing that he is indeed sufficiently recovered to put on the armor again.—Charlotte News.

"Eastern North Carolina is going after prosperity with all its might. Not alone is it working for good roads, but it is in the campaign for the inland waterway."—Raleigh News and Observer. And when Eastern North Carolina shall have acquired good roads and the inland waterway, as it undoubtedly will, soon or late that section will be one of the most prosperous in all the country—a veritable land of corn and wine, flowing with milk and honey. The natural resources are there in superabundance. All that is required is development; and development waits only on adequate means of communication. These, good roads and the inland waterway will supply, in large measure. —Norfolk Virginian Pilot.

AT BINGHAM SCHOOL.

Commencement Exercises—Graduates Athletic Contests, Etc.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Mebane, N. C., May 16.—The commencement exercises at Bingham school, closing the session of 1910-11, began with the baccoalaureate sermon, delivered by Rev. Daniel Albright Long. This was a most interesting event as Dr. Long easily ranks as one of the leading Theologians and ablest men of the South.

Tuesday, May 16, at 8 P. M., the graduating exercises, awarding of diplomas, certificates, scholarships, prizes and medals will take place and on Wednesday, May 17th, at 3 P. M., the contest for athletic prizes will be held. Wednesday, May 17th, at 8 P. M., the final Inter-Society Contest for Debater's declaimer's and orator's medals will be held.

The great regret itself on account of the enforced absence from the commencement exercises of Hon. Jeter C. Pritchard, judge of the United States Circuit Court, who had accepted an invitation to be present and deliver an address. Judge Pritchard is confined to his bed and unable to attend on account of his sickness.

On these occasions, the Bingham Military band and also the orchestra of the school, which have made great progress under the efficient leadership of the teacher of music, Captain Frederick B. Spiker, will furnish delightful music.

There are thirteen graduates in the scientific course, the commercial book keeping and the commercial shorthand course.

PAINT LICK LADY WRITES THANKS

For the Great Benefit That Cardui, the Woman's Tonic, Was to Her When Sick.

Paint Lick, Ky.—"I suffered so much from womanly trouble," writes Mrs. Mary Freeman, of Paint Lick, Ky., "before I commenced to take Cardui.

"I was so weak from it, that I was down on my back nearly all the time.

"I have taken three bottles of Cardui and it has done me more good than any medicine I ever took in my life.

"I can't possibly praise it too highly, it has done so much for me and I will do all I can to help you for I think it is the only medicine on earth that will cure female troubles."

You need not be afraid to try Cardui, for in doing so you are making no new experiment in drug dosing or in tablets of concentrated mineral ingredients.

Cardui as a medicine, as a tonic for weak, tired, worn-out women is time-tested, safe, reliable. It has helped others and should certainly help you.

Composed of gentle-acting herb ingredients, its action is mild and natural and it has no bad after-effects, as have many of the powerful drugs, sometimes recommended.

Try it.

Washington, May 16.—Mr. J. J. AN AUTHORITY'S FASHION HINT TO MEN

'The American owes his reputation for being the best dressed man in the world to the care he uses in the selection of his collars," says a prominent authority on men's dress. 'No matter how well cut a man's clothes, or how fine the material, the whole effect is lost if his collar spreads and hangs loosely."

Here you find one of the reasons why the close-front collar is so very popular. It gives such a smart touch to any man's attire. There's no excuse now for a man not having a close-front as the "slip-over" buttonhole does away with the trouble of buttoning and the patent "lock-front," another exclusive LION collar feature, keeps the collar from spreading. ALCO and CLIMAX are the preferred styles with these exclusive features.

CASES BEFORE THE RECORDER

Rather Interesting Session of Court Yesterday—Several Defendants Drew Sentences—Other Cases Continued.

The Recorder had several cases to claim his attention yesterday morning and the session of court was of a rather interesting nature. Several defendants drew sentences either on the roads or county farm. Probably the most important case was the one in which David Hines, colored, was charged with selling two half pints of whiskey to Henry Slater, colored, Saturday night.

The testimony was to the effect that Slater gave Hines $1 and asked him to get him a pint of whiskey; Hines went off and after being away a short time returned with two half pints, which cost 50 cents; the whiskey was turned over to Slater, who was told that the 50 cents which he should have received in change had been lost. Failure to receive his change prompted Slater to swear out the warrant against Hines. The Recorder held that the defendant is guilty of the offense, but reserved judgment until tomorrow and in the meantime the person who sold the whiskey to Slater will probably be arrested.

The case against Viola Williams, Lizzie Sessoms and Gesley Watson, colored women, charged with affray, was continued until today, when it is thought that Carrie Williams, colored, who was painfully cut during the difficulty late Monday night, will be able to be out and present at the hearing. The women indulged in a fight at the home of one of the number, just beyond the hospital, late Monday night and the affair cost Mounted Officer Frank George the loss of his horse, as told of in yesterday's Star.

Son Blount, colored, was fined $10 and costs for disorderly conduct. Dave Sterling, colored, charged with violating the driving ordinance by driving on the wrong side of the street, was let off upon payment of costs. Joe Pea, a colored barber, was called to answer the charge of drunkenness and carrying a concealed weapon. Judgment was suspended in the former case and in the latter he was given three months on the county roads.

Laura Cooper, Ollie Hayes and Edna Merritt, colored, were tried on the charge of stealing flowers and ferns from the yard of Mrs. H. H. Merritt Monday night, found guilty and sentenced to three months each at the county farm. Through their counsel, L. Clayton Grant, Esq., they gave notice of appeal to Superior Court. Archie Blue and Frank Meares, colored, charged with gambling with cards in a store at Seventh and Nun streets, were found not guilty.

Messrs. Rountree & Carr, counsel for the defendants in the case of B. H. Stephens against Mrs. Sallie M. S. Hicks and husband, R. W. Hicks, yesterday filed a demurrer to the complaint in the action. The plaintiff is seeking to recover $350 alleged to be balance due on contract for plans and specifications for an apartment house. It is set up in the demurrer that the defendant Mrs. Sallie M. S. Hicks is a married woman and that the said alleged contract stated in the complaint was not in writing and made with the written consent of her husband and co-defendant, R. W. Hicks; also that the demurrants are advised, believe and allege that by the law of North Carolina no lien is given to an architect for merely furnishing plans and specifications for building a house. Messrs. Kenan & Stacy represent the plaintiff. The case will probably be heard within the next few days.

COURT DRAGS ALONG SLOWLY.

Little Progress Being Made in Case Against Mr. W. E. Worth.

United States Circuit Court drags along very slowly in the trial of the case of the Knickerbocker Trust Co., of New York, against Wm. E. Worth, of this city, which was taken up Monday morning. The first witness, Mr. J. E. Miller, who was an assistant to an official of the plaintiff company, remained on the witness stand until the recess hour yesterday at noon. The cross-camination ended at that time, so when court reconvened in the afternoon the next witness, Mr. A. F. Halsted, treasurer of the Rockingham Construction Company, was called to the stand. The Rockingham Construction Co., is the concern that was chartered in New York to do construction work for the Rockingham Power Co. Thedirect examination of the witness was concluded in a short time, but the cross-examination had not been finished when court adjourned at 6 o'clock for the day. It is very likely that the case will occupy the time of the court the remainder of the week.

NEWS OF THE SHIPING.

Two Schooners Arrived With Cargo—Steamer Kildale Comes Up.

The British steamer Kildale, which was lightered at Southport to enable her to pass up the river without danger of going ashore, reached her dock at the Seaboard terminals yesterday, where she began discharging her cargo of nitrate of soda.

The schooner Estelle Krieger, of 1,047 tons, arrived yesterday with cargo of phosphate rock from Tampa, Fla., for the Swift Fertilizer Works. The vessel brings 1,758 tons and is drawing 21.6 feet of water. On account of the deep draught of the vessel a portion of her cargo will be discharged at the Seaboard before she proceeds up the river to the Swift plant. The schooner John H. May, Capt. Stille, arrived yesterday from New York with cargo of coal for the Springer Coal Company.

MACOMBER'S DITCH NUISANCE

City Engineer Will be Instructed to Secure Estimates of Cost of Improvement—Action of the City Council.

Having been reminded of the act passed at the recent Legislature making it mandatory upon the city officials to take steps toward abating the Macomber's ditch nuisance by the 28th day of this month, the City Council, in regular monthly session yesterday afternoon adopted a resolution instructing the city engineer whenever he is named to prepare at once estimates for draining and filling up the ditch. The city engineer will probably be elected at a special meeting of Council this afternoon.

The law compelling the city officials to abate the Macomber's ditch nuisance and improve that section of the city, was called to the attention of the Council by Mr. Thos. H. Wright, who owns property in that section, and Col. Walker Taylor, who does not own any property in the territory adjacent to the ditch. Mr. R. H. Northrop was also present in the interest of the work. Mr. Wright referred to the various efforts which have been made during the past eight or ten years to have the ditch filled up, citing the fact that physicians had condemned the ditch and had declared that very likely it was in large measure responsible for much of the typhoid fever here last Summer. Besides the section through which the ditch runs is about one-third of the area of the city and is undeveloped on account of the ditch. When the contemplated improvements are made it is believed that not only will the property in that section be greatly enhauced in value, but that many new and handsome homes will be built, thus developing a wide area that is not now inhabited. Mr. Wright expressed the hope that the Council would take hold of the matter and begin the work just as soon as possible.

City Attorney Herbert McClammy was not certain as to how the money for the improvement should be secured; whether money should be taken from the bond issue for street improvements, or secured by increased tax assessment. He was inclined to think that the city would not have the right to use any of the bond money for this improvement. However, this is a matter to be taken up later and there is no doubt but that some way will be found by which the money for the work will be raised.

Col. Taylor made a strong talk in favor of the improvement. Although not a lawyer, he said that he thought the money for the improvement should come from the bond issue fund for street improvements. He said that the improvement of this ditch should be undertaken right away and be pushed to a rapid completion. All recognize that the ditch is a menace to health and that it should be closed. There is no argument on this point, he said, and be then proceeded to show how the city would receive in increased taxes by reason of enhanced value of real estate in that section more than it will expend in the improvement. There will be an increase in the valuation of the property right away, the increase being more than enough to pay the interest on $50,000, though this work will cost less than half this amount.

Col. Taylor has a splendid idea with reference to the improvement in that section and this was given to the Council in the form of a suggestion and apparently met with the approval of the entire board. Col. Taylor suggested a boulevard from Castle street to the cemetery. The street should be made 100 feet in width and be converted into a park, allowing no vehicles to drive through it. This would afford a splendid park in a few years and playgrounds for the children. It was thought that enough ground would be given by the property owners to make one of the streets 100 feet or more in width, so that this idea could be carried out. The following is the text of the bill passed by the Legislature with reference to the ditch:

"Section 1. That the stream running through the eastern section of the city of Wilmington, in a northwardly direction, known as Macomber's ditch, beginning at a point near the intersection of 15th and Queen streets, and running thence in a northwestwardly direction, along and across numerous streets in said city to 13th street where it empties into Burnt Mill creek, is a menace to the health of the people of the city, and is a public nuisance.

"Section 2. That the proper authorities of the city of Wilmington, shall and hereby are authorized, empowered, ordered and directed to take such steps and do such work as may be necessary to abate the nuisance created by this ditch, and to convert the whole ditch into a closed drain, and to lay out, establish and maintain the streets along and across which it runs, in such a manner as may appear to them to be most efficient, and for the best interest of those living in the neighborhood of said ditch and the other residents of the city.

"Section 3. That it shall be the duty of the proper authorities of the said city of Wilmington to begin the work directed to be done in section two of this act within three months from the ratification of this act and push the same to a speedy completion.

"Section 4. That all laws and clauses in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

"Section 5. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

"In the General Assembly read three times and ratified this the 26th day of February, 1911."

REGISTER FOR BOND ELECTION

Books Open at Various Polling Places in New Hanover for Remainder of Week—New Registration Is Required.

An important matter, which has thus far escaped the public interest that such a proposition should enlist in a progressive community, is the bond election for the purpose of continuing and maintaining the present system of improved highways in New Hanover and for the construction of bridges. The election is to be held Wednesday, May 31st, and unless a person registers anew he will not be qualified to vote.

The registration books will be open the remainder of the week at all the polling places in the county for the purpose of allowing voters to register and unless this important matter is attended to before Saturday night it will be too late. The registration thus far is light and while there can be no doubt of a successful issue at the polls, one can never tell what is going to happen and it is desired to have a very representative expression of the sentiment of the community on this important matter.

New Hanover is already becoming to be known far and wide for the progress it is showing in road building and that the county is developing under the highway improvement is abundantly evidenced in the last census returns which showed that the county outside of Wilmington actually grew faster than did the city itself. The Federal Point road is now under construction and the people may look for a splendid development of that section within a short time. Still other things are to be done, notably the establishment of free ferries at Wilmington over the Cape Fear and at or near Castle Haynes, over the Northeast river. These great public improvements cannot be taken care of unless the money is provided and the people will be responsible for their success or failure.

The official notice of the bond election is given elsewhere in today's paper and every citizen is reminded that the books will be open only until Saturday. The registrars may be found at the polling places except as to the Fourth Ward and Mr. Cronly, the registrar, may be seen at the Court House. Remember, you must register before Saturday.

SUNDAY SCHOOL EXCURSION.

St. Paul's and St. Matthew's Enjoyed Day—Baseball Game.

As the guests of the Tidewater Power Co., members of the St. Paul's and St. Matthew's Lutheran Sunday schools yesterday afternoon enjoyed a fine outing at Wrightsville Beach, leaving the city in five suburban cars at 3 P. M., and returning last evening at 7:30. There were 315 in the party and they were in charge of Mr. C. W. Polvogt, superintendent of St. Paul's, and Mr. W. W. Koch, superintendent of St. Matthew's school. Today the Sunday schools of the Christian Church and the Sixth Street and Front Street Advent churches will have their outing at Wrightsville.

A feature of the excursion yesterday was a baseball game between the classes of Mr. C. W. Polvogt and Mr. F. E. Hashagen, in St. Paul's Sunday school, resulting in a victory of 7 to 5 in favor of the latter. The batteries were Merritt and W. Haar for Hashagen and Vollers and H. Haar for Polvogt. The battery work of both teams, the work of Third Baseman Schnibben and Stonebanks, and First Baseman Hutaff and Otten were features of the game.

The line-up of the teams was as follows: W. Haar, catcher; Merritt pitcher; G. Hutaff, first base; G. Haar, second base; L. Schnibben, thirdbase, and C. Oldenbuttel, short stop for the Hashagen team, and H. Haar, catcher; Vollers, pitcher; Otten, first base; Richter, second base; Stonebanks, third base; M. Schnibben, short stop and D. Hanson, left field, for the Polvogt team.

FUNERAL OF MR. DONLAN.

Requiem Mass at St. Thomas' Catholic Church This Morning.

The remains of the late Mr. Frank P. Donlan, whose sad death occurred last week at Denver, Colo., whither he had gone in search of health, reached the city yesterday afternoon over the Seaboard Air Line and were taken to the residence of his father, Mr. Timothy Donlan, Third and Chesnut streets, where a large number of friends called during the day and evening to pay their respects. The funeral will be conducted at 10 o'clock this morning from St. Thomas' Catholic Church and the interment will be in Oakdale cemetery. The Wilmington Council, Knights of Columbus; the Wilmington Lodge, B. P. O. SECOND REGULAR MEETING

City Council in Session About Two Hours Yesterday Afternoon—Number of Matters of Importance Considered.

The second regular weekly meeting of the City Council was held in the Mayor's office yesterday afternoon and during the two hours' session a number of matters of importance were considered. Mayor Joseph D. Smith presided and all Councilmen were in attendance; also Capt. Thos. D. Meares, Clerk and Treasurer; City Attorney Herbert McClammy, and several citizens.

The meeting was called to order shortly after 4 o'clock and the first matter to receive the attention of the body was a request of the First Presbyterian Church, made through Col. Walker Taylor, for a permit to move the Church of the Good Shepherd Building from Sixth and Queen streets to 12th and Queen streets, which was granted, bond in the sum of $500 to be given to indemnify the city in case of any damage. The building has been purchased by the First Presbyterian Church and will be used by the colored Sunday School, organized in that section about a year ago. The Church of the Good Shepherd is arranging to erect a new building, work on which will begin as soon as the old building is moved away.

After considering the Macomber's ditch matter, an account of which is given in another column, Mayor Smith mentioned the fact that the Council will also have to consider the establishment of a free ferry across the Cape Fear river as provided for in a bill enacted by the Legislature. He said that he and Chairman McEachern, of the Board of County Commissioners, had held a conference and that the latter had sent to Raleigh for a copy of the bill.

Mr. A. B. Skelding, general manager of the Tidewater Power Co., appeared before the Council with reference to permit for excavations for gas mains in the streets. He was under the impression that the present permit expired yesterday, but it holds until June 1st. Mr. Skelding said that the company would be glad for the city to take charge of the work of tearing up and replacing the streets, when there are excavations for gas mains. At present, he said, the work as now being done is not always satisfactory and the gas company gets the blame for it. Councilman P. Q. Moore stated that an ordinance covering this matter would be drawn.

Upon motion of Councilman P. Q. Moore, the city attorney was instructed to bring suit against Sheriff S. P. Cowan to recover possession of the bridge materials seized a few days ago under an execution in an action of the Des Moines Bridge & Iron Co., against the Southern Construction Co. Claim and delivery proceedings is the action which will be brought and it is understood that the suit will be docketed in Superior Court this morning. The city can regain possession of the materials by giving bond in double the amount of the value of the same, which is approximately $7,500. This is the amount of bond Sheriff Cowan required the Des Moines Co., to give for his protection. It is understood that it is the purpose of the city to resume work of constructing the bridge.

Capt. Meares stated to the board that in cleaning out the City Clerk and Treasurer's office he had found a paper dated April 2nd, 1908, which was a lien on property for street improvements on Fourth street. Some of the amounts have been paid into the city treasurer. Upon the suggestion of Capt Meares, the paper, containing the judgment and list of names of property owners, was turned over to the city attorney. The clerk read a communication from the Charlotte Audit Co., asking for the contract to audit the city books. A representative of the company will be here in a few days and he will be given hearing by Councilman Tiencken, of the department of Accounts and Finance. Councilman Tiencken stated that he had not yet gotten the city finances in shape to distribute the money among the different banks of the city as required by law, but that this would be done in a short time.

The Council decided to meet Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock to begin work on the budget and tax ordinance for the approaching fiscal year. Meetings will be held every afternoon until this work is finished.

No Near-Beer After June 1st.

While the State law prohibiting the sale of near-beer anywhere in North Carolina is not effective until July 1st, it is likely that the sale of the beverage in this city will be prohibited after June 1st, when the license of the present dealers expire. There are 42 licensed near-beer places in the city. The matter of granting license for the month of June should application be made by the dealers was brought up, but there was no action.

Councilmen are considering the matter of doing away with the city building at Sixth and Castle streets and erecting a modern fire house and market at Fifth and Castle streets, so it was stated at the meeting. It was decided to hold a meeting this afternoon after the conference with the County Board of Health for the purpose of electing a city engineer.

Councilman Tiencken inquired whether or not it was definitely decided at a recent meeting that the head of each department would purchase the supplies he needs for his department, otherwise Mr. Tiencken was not relieved of the responsibility of making purchases for all the departments. In order that there would be no doubt as to the action of Council on this, a resolution was adopted providing that the head of each department purchase what supplies he needs, each to report to Councilman Tiencken at the end of each month, and he may approve or disapprove the bills as he sees fit.

Councilman B. C. Moore stated that recently it had been necessary for the officers to get after some of the fish and country carts for not having their products protected by a wire or glass screens as required by the city ordinance, and he asked if the ordinance could not be changed so as to permit the use of canvas screens, with which all carts are equipped. City Attorney McClammy said that it would not be necessary to change the ordinance, that if the carts have a canvas they are complying with the law. Mayor Smith said that he understood that the doors to the Front street market had been screened, but that the meats had not been screened, and suggested that the ordinance either be enforced or repealed. It was decided to consider the ordinance at the next regular meeting, when those interested will be invited to be present.

Joint Conference Today.

There will be a joint conference this afternoon of the County Board of Health and the City Council for the purpose of considering matters of health and sanitation. It is understood that the proposition to consolidate to some extent the city and county health offices will be considered. Dr. Joseph Akerman, city superintendent of health, who will probably be re-elected for the ensuing term, has prepared, at the request of the Council, a statement of matters to be arranged before the intelligent appointment of a superintendent of health and fixing of his compensation, the following:

Relation to county superintendent in the school work.

Duties in reference to indigent sick, (hospital vs. home treatment).

Coroner duty, investigation of sudden deaths, deaths resulting from violence, etc.

Care of prisoners and officers, prescribing, dressing, etc.

Scavenger service, Raleigh system collections, etc.

Quarantine care of contagious diseases among indigent, providing medicines and equipment.

Relation to police and street departments, arrests, drains, garbage, trash, etc. Civil Service Commission.

And also prepared a statement as to changes necessary to develop an efficient health department, as follows:

Steps looking to ultimate employment of a trained man for all his time and providing an adequate equipment.

Development of a scavenger service under control of the health department with proper disposal facilities.

More efficient system of removing garbage, dead animals, trash and the like.

Development of some plan for prompt abatement of sewer and other nuisances.

More co-operation on the part of the other departments, especially police, street and legal.

Revision of plumbing inspection and supervision, legislation for location of closets, stables, etc.

Drawing and prosecuting of all ordinances under direction of legal department, prosecuting failure to report diseases, births, etc.

There seems to be some question as to whether Mr. M. S. Willard, named as a member of the civil service commission, will be able to retain the office, on account of holding another office of trust connected with the city. Mr. Willard called the attention of the city attorney to the matter and an opinion will be given probably today.

20,000 Bushels of Berries.

An advertisement of Messrs. Sol. Bear & Co., who conduct a winery in this city, for 20,000 bushels of blackberries appears in today's paper. The season being near at hand the usual demand for the berries, which are manufactured into native wines, is made. The company each year receives large shipments of the berries from the surrounding section.

Baseball Yesterday.

The Pig Bristle Sluggers defeated the Dirty Face Scraps in an exciting game of baseball yesterday afternoon, the score being 24 to 13 in favor of the former. The batteries for the latter were Hardin and French and Corbett and MacMillan for the former.

THE BUILDING COMMISSION.

Meets in Raleigh Friday 1 P. M. to Decide Upon Site for Structure.

Secretary Wm. E. Springer, of the State Building Commission, is advised by Chairman Ashley Horne, of the State Building Commission, that there will be a meeting of that body in Raleigh Friday at 1 P. M., for the purpose of considering the report of the sub-committee as to the site for the proposed new administration building. Chairman Horne advises that this meeting will last for two days and that it is likely that the matter of architects for the building will be considered if the question of the site is definitely settled upon. There are three sites in view upon which the Commission has secured ten day options.

46TH ANNUAL REUNION.

Held at Beach Yesterday by Third N. C. Infantry Association.

With a fairly large attendance of members, the 46th annual reunion of the Third North Carolina Infantry Association was held yesterday at Wrightsville Beach and the day was most pleasantly spent by all. The association is the oldest survivors' organization on either side during the Civil War. Its membership is composed of the command of the late Col. Wm. L. DeRosset, and associated members, these being the eldest sons of the survivors.

The party went to the beach at 10 o'clock yesterday morning and soon after the arrival the annual meeting was held and a number of matters of interest to the association were transacted. In the death of Col. DeRosset, the commander, it was provided that the senior officer become president and Capt. W. H. Northrop was elected to this office; Gen. James I. Metts was elected vice president, and Mr. W. L. DeRosset was elected secretary and treasurer. Resolutions were adopted in memory of those who have passed away since the last reunion, these being Col. W. L. DeRosset, Col. John L. Cantwell and Mr. J. J. Cannady. After the transaction of some routine matters, the party enjoyed a delightful oyster roast, following which several hours were pleasantly spent in reminiscences of the struggle between the States. It was regretted that Dr. Edward J. Wood, who was to have read a paper, could not be present. General Metts and Capt. Northrop are the only living members of the association who were commissioned officers in the regiment, so far as known here. The party returned to the city at 5 o'clock after having had a most pleasant outing.

The Hill Company have been issuing directories for this city for a number of years and the books have always proven very satisfactory.

Grand Theatre.

These warm days and nights the "Theatre Beautiful" is indeed a delightful place to go. Four of the largest exhaust fans made carry out the fresh air supply continuously by 16 small fans, making the Grand the coolest place in town. On today's bill will be found another masterpiece by the Vitagraph Company entitled "The Prejudice of Pierre." This is a beautiful story with an elaborate setting and costumes. "In the Days of Nero" is the headliner for the day. The way that this villainous character does throughout this story is exciting to say the least. The wonderful way in which the Gaumont people present this picture makes it one of the most interesting dramatic triumphs of the day. There is also another great comedy picture entitled 'Love at First sight' This picture is a scream and will interest and amuse all tastes. Mr. Baldwin has a new song which will probably be the best of the week. The orchestra also has a new programme. Doors open daily at 2 P. M.

At the Bijou.

A big two-fold triumphant bill is going to be presented at the Bijou today. This is to apply to the moving pictures, though everything will, as usual, be new in the music line, including a new song hit by the popular, Frank Banks, the possessor of a rich baritone voice. The motion pictures will be great for both comedy and drama. The former may well be designated "domestic comedy," as the films, which are screams, deal with life at home. First is the film, "Discharging the Cook." "Dear Kind Hubby" is another domestic comedy of big chuckles. In this film hubby tries to be the boss of the kitchen, and shows how to run things. He does run them. He joy-rides them into a chaos and ruin. "An Accomplice," one of the strongest of all dramatic films, is also on the bill. A delightfully refreshing film is that of "Winter Sports at Lucerne." It is decidedly graphic and instructive, as well as highly entertaining.

Joyland.

There will be three big feature reels on for today which will contain plenty of variety. There will be a high-class drama, a big comedy and Mr. Reilly will have on a new song which will be rendered in his usual calssy manner. There are lots of treats in store for Joylanders this week. Open daily at 2::30 P. M.

THE GOLDSBORO TRAIN.

New Service Proving Very Attractive —Mail Delivery Good.

The first trains under the new schedule on the Wilmington and Weldon railroad, between this city and Goldsboro, came in and departed yesterday morning promptly on schedule time. In spite of the fact that little advertisement has been given to the inauguration of this service, there were possibly a dozen passengers from Wilmington and Goldsboro on the initial run and it is expected that the patronage will grow rapidly as the advantages gradually dawn on the traveling public. The greatest benefit thus far has been in quickening up the mail service. Mail posted after business hours at night by this train reaches its destination anywhere in the State by breakfast the following morning and a corresponding advantage is obtained in the fact that upon the arrival of the train at 1 A. M. at the Wilmington postoffice mail is ready for the carriers on their early morning delivery and is on the desk of every business man when he reaches his place of business.

The mail is at present being handled through the Wilmington postoffice by express pouches made up for Goldsboro and connecting trains out of there in the early morning but very soon it is expected that regular railway mail clerk service will be inaugurated on the new train. Mail posted at night for the early train for points between Wilmington and Goldsboro is delivered at Goldsboro to the incoming train arriving here at 10:10 and is worked out at the various stations on the morning train down.

Subscribers to the morning paper at Wilmington receive their mail coincidently with the Raleigh paper and those living on the R. . D. routes receive their papers the same day of publication instead of the day following. Subscribers in the State beyond Goldsboro also receive their papers on the morning trains out of Goldsboro instead of during the following night as was heretofore the case.

Woman's Happiness

The highest point of woman's happiness is reached only through motherhood, in the clasping of her child within her arms. Yet the mother-to-be is often fearful of nature's ordeal and shrinks from the suffering incident to its consummation. But for nature's ills and discomforts nature provides remedies, and in Mother's Friend is to be found a medicine of great value to every expectant mother. It is an oily emulsion for external application, composed of ingredients which act with beneficial and soothing effect on those portions of the system involved. It is intended to prepare the system for the crisis, and thus relieve, in great part, the suffering through which the mother usually passes. The regular use of Mother's Friend will repay any mother in the comfort it affords before, and the helpful restoration to health and strength it brings about after baby comes. Mother's Friend is for sale at drug stores. Write for our free book for expectant mothers which contains much valuable information, and many suggestions of a helpful nature.

ISRAELITE MISSIONARIES.

Party of Five Arrived in the City Yesterday—Will Preach.

Interesting visitors in the city yesterday were a party of five men who came in a gasolene launch, heralding themselves as "Israelites From the House of David." They came from Benton Harbor, Mich., where they are members of a colony settlement, consisting of several hundred people, living all in one family, carrying out to a certain extent the doctrines of Socialism, their settlement being called "Jerusalem." They preach the doctrines of the Bible from the Israelite standpoint, wear their hair long and hanging loosely down their backs in obedience to the Scriptural injunction. One of them stated yesterday that they had misionaries in nearly all the civilized world, and at the present time 14 of them are in the South.

The five who arrived in Wilmington yesterday gave their names as Forest Lanier, Gail Dart, Charles Dessen, William Groves and George Nelson. They came the entire trip from Benton Harbor, Mich., in a 14-foot launch, coming by way of the Great Lakes and the St. Lawrence river, covering over 3,000 miles on the trip thus far. They expect to remain in the city four or five days and will preach daily at Front and Market streets in the afternoon and evening. They will go from here to New York City, employing the same means of transportation on this trip.

OUTING OF THE W. L. I.

Arrangements Complete for the Celebration at Beach Saturday.

The committee in charge has completed arrangements for the annual celebration of May 20th, anniversary of the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence, by the Wilmington Light Infantry, which will take place at Wrightsville Beach Saturday. The attendance is expected to be unusually large this year. Members of the company will go to the beach at 10 o'clock Saturday morning. They will wear olive drab uniform. The first event of the day is the company competitive shoot for a medal. In the afternoon there will be a competitive shoot between the company and Reserve Corps for a cup. The Reserve Corps won last year and the active members of the company are determined to turn the tables this year. At night there will be given the annual 20th of May dance and the competitive drill for a cup. Last year Sergeant E. F. Peschau won the cup in the drill. The dance will be the first of the season at Lumina and will very probably be largely attended by the young people of the city. The committee in charge of arrangements for the celebration is composed of Mr. E. C. Hines, chairman; Messrs. Z. K. Bell, H. L. O'Neill, R. H. Grant, Jr., and J. B. Lynch.

COTTON RECOVERED THE LOSS

Market Influenced by Reports That Rain is Needed in South—Net Gain of Six to Seventeen Points—Features.

New York, May 16.—Yesterday's losses were just about recovered in the cotton market in today's trading, owing to the renewal of the old bull support, steadier cables and covering by new crop shorts, who seemed to be partly influenced by reports that rain is needed in some sections of the South. The close was off from the best, under realizing, and barely steady, but last prices showed a net gain of from 6 to 17 points.

The market opened steady at a decline of 2 points on May, unchanged on July, but 2 to 6 points higher on later months, which were influenced by higher cables than expected, and the failure of the weather map to show the rains forecasted yesterday. There was some further liquidation of July, but big spot people and brokers supposed to be operating for one of the bull operators of last season were buyers of that position, and the whole list firmed up shortly after the opening. There was some selling of new crop positions by commission houses with Southern connections, after the publication of the Western belt forecast for unsettled weather in Texas and Oklahoma, but offerings were very well absorbed and demand appeared to be stimulated during the early afternoon by the weekly report of the weather bureau indicating sufficient moisture during the past week.

July contracts sold up to 15.88, or to within one point of the high record for the season, and about 18 points higher, while August touched 15.46 or 22 points net higher and the new crop showed net gains of about 17@18 points. Realizing became heavier around this level, and the market reacted 6 or 7 points from the best during the later trading.

Probably the firm showing of the stock market following the Supreme Court decision of yesterday helped the cotton market to some extent, as there was some covering by Wall Street shorts, but otherwise the decision seemed to be without any particular influence. There was some selling of the new crop on the advance by traders who believe that dry weather during May is a favorable feature from a new crop standpoint.

Receipts today, 8,335 bales, against 12,104 last week, and 13,356 last year. For the week, 60,000, against 60,474 last week, and 74,708 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans, 1,789, against 3,011 last year, and at Houston, 1,160, against 1,106 last year.

Spot closed quiet, 15 points higher. Middling uplands, 15.95; do. gulf, 16.20; sales, 100 bales.

Futures opened steady and closed barely steady:

THE GRAIN MARKET.

Chicago, May 16.—Wheat prices sank under free selling in the last half hour of the session today. The decline was coincident with talk by a prominent operator that crop prospects in this country could hardly be better, and that a fall of ten cents a bushel from present values might easily take place. Closing figures were the same as last night at 3-4c down. Final trades left corn 1-8c off to a shade up; oats unchanged to ¼ to ½c higher and hog products less expensive by 10 to 20 cents.

STOCKS RESPOND TO DECISION

Action in Standard Oil Case Caused Strong and Insistant Demand for Securities — Great Increase in Business.

New York, May 16.—Wall Street's immediate response to the decision of the Supreme Court in the Standard Oil case was a strong and insistent demand for securities such as had not been witnessed since the dissolution of the Pearson-Farquhar syndicate last July. The decision was interpreted as a most important bullish factor and stocks were advanced with a rush, the important issues gaining from 2 to 4 points.

The great increase in the volume of business was perhaps as important a feature of the market as the advance in prices. In the first hour three times as much business was done as in yesterday's entire session. Trading thereafter was not on so large a scale, but the market remained active. The day's total was 1,002,600 shares. Among the important gains were:

Union Pacific and General Electric, 4; Reading, 3¼; Southern Pacific, U. S. Steel, Westinghouse Electric and Utah Copper, 3, and Atchison, Lehigh and Lehigh Valley, New York Central, Amalgamated Copper, American Smelting and a number of other active stocks, 2 or more. Standard Oil, fluctuating back and forth on the "curb," selling at one time five points above yesterday's close, but losing more than 15 points on the day. American Tobacco was similarly upset, closing with a five point gain, after having advanced 20 points.

The demand for stocks was more than local. It began last night in the many orders sent from this center to London, and was supplemented at the latter place by home and continental purchases. Operations for the European account may safely be put at not less than 75,000, a larger part of which was later sold here. The domestic demand aside from local buying, came mainly from such centers as Boston, Philadelphia, Pittsburg and Chicago, and commission houses reported a considerable amount of absorption by investors.

Relief that the uncertainty which had restricted business for so long was ended at last, was perhaps as much of a market factor as the nature of the decision itself. The immediate effect of the court's ruling was lost sight of in view of the broad principle which it enunciated, which Wall Street viewed as unmistakably favorable to corporations that fall into the class of the so-called trusts. The effect of this view upon operations in the stock market is seen in the fact that many of the largest advances were made by stocks of corporations which are at present involved in proceedings instituted by the government or have been in the past, on account of the nature of their activities. Union Pacific, which is involved in the Harriman merger suit, now pending in the courts, made the largest gain of any of the active stocks. General Electric, which is chiefly concerned in the suit recently brought by the government against various electrical companies, was one of the strongest stocks as was United States Steel, although a resolution for the appointment of a committee to investigate the Steel Corporation was passed by the lower branch of Congress today. Bankers, brokers and speculators were disposed to view the result of this and similar cases with equanimity. Although a general improvement in the economic situation is now hoped for, the outcome cannot be foretold at the present time. Other developments were subordinated to consideration of the Standard Oil case, and had virtually no effect on the market.

The increase in activity in stocks resulted in heavier demands for funds and the money market was firmer.

Trading in bonds increased with that in stocks, and the bond market was active and strong. Total sales, par value, $5,267,000. Total sales of stocks today were 1,002,600 shares.

Do Ghosts Haunt Swamps?

No, never. It's foolish to fear a fancied evil, when there are real and deadly perils to guard against in swamps and marshes, bayous and lowlands. These are the malaria germs that cause ague, chills and fever, weakness, aches in the bones and muscles and may induce deadly typhoid. But Electric Bitters destroys and casts out these vicious germs from the blood. "Three bottles drove all the malaria from my system," wrote Wm. Fretwell, of Lucama, N. C., "and I've had fine health ever since." Use this safe, sure remedy only, 50c at R. R. Bellamy's.

frankly expressed their disappointment as to the "rule of reason" feature of the decision. Chairman Adamson, of the House Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce, declared the Supreme Court had no constitutional power to write the words "reasonable" or "unreasonable" into the Sherman anti-trust law.

It was reported tonight that several Democrats are ready to offer amendments to nullify the court's interpretation of the law, but the matter unquestionably will be carefully considered before any action is taken.

Some insurgent Republican senators were also said to have in view amendments to the anti-trust law declaring all monopolies, whether reasonable or unreasonable, to be in restraint of trade, and thus take from courts the power of interpretation bestowed on yesterday's decision.

Representative Mann, Republican leader of the House, gave the decision his hearty endorsement. He defended the court's action in the use of the word "unreasonable" and declared that if some such distinction had not been made in the opinion, the business world would have been thrown into chaos.

Chairman Clayton, of the House Judiciary Committee, declared that the "unexpected narrowing of the statute" would make necessary further legislation by Congress. Mr. Clayton held to the view, however, that courts conclusion was correct and would be generally approved.

Senator Clark, chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee, declared the court's ruling to have been "a wonderfully wise decision."

Senator LaFollette, the insurgent leader, read in the Senate today Attorney General Wickersham's statement of last night, expressing gratification over the Supreme Court's action and followed it with extracts from the President's special message of January 7, 1910, already referred to.

Senator LaFollette said that evidently there had been "a remarkable change" in the views of the administration if the attorney general's statement reflected the present state of mind of the executive.

The Standard Oil decision occupied the cabinet almost exclusively at today's session and President Taft, having read it over twice, also discussed its purport with some of his callers. His attitude of the President himself, that he should defer to the Supreme Court and accept their law as his law, was reflected by the cabinet. There is a disposition among cabinet members to await the decision of the Supreme Court in the Tobacco case. That decision is expected May 29th and until then no policy will be outlined by the administration to strengthen the anti-trust law or solve a problem that yesterday's decision seems to have made even more vexatious than ever before.

To the visitors tonight President Taft declared that he had no present intention of sending a special message to Congress proposing additional anti-trust legislation. While the President would not discuss the decision generally, his speeches on the subject and his special message of January 7th, 1910, left no doubt as to his views. He had hoped not so much for a decree dissolving the Standard Oil Company, it is said, as for a clear interpretation of the anti-trust act under which the Department of Justice could proceed in the future.

However, he may regard the interpretation of the law as it may be applied in future cases, the President believes that the upholding of the anti-trust law generally by th ecourt will be very useful to accomplish the end which Congress desires.

There is no intention upon the part of the administration to check the activities of the Department of Justice. Trusts found violating the anti-trust act will be proceeded against as in the past.

The President thinks that conviction in most cases generally is certain where the evidence produced shows an attempt to create a monopoly.

Although the matter had been considered it seemed probable tonight that there woulid be any attempt to proceed criminally against the directors of the Standard Oil.

At this time the President is not determined whether he will press the Federal incorporation bill which he recommended to the consideration of Congress more than a year ago.

He told callers tonight that he still believed in the merits of that bill.

As a whole, the cabinet is more likely to favor a Federal incorporation law than an amendment to the Sherman act.

Justice Harlan's dissenting opinion, delivered orally and without notes, was available in its entirety for the first time today and received a most careful consideration.

"As to all the chief justices has said about the illegal combination of this oil company, and its coming within the anti-trust act, I cordially concur," said Justice Harlan at the outset.

"There are, however, some things in this opinion, and that are to result from this opinion which I think may very well alarm thoughful men, or many thoughful men; and I am unwilling to let them pass with any idea that I approve them."

Sidelights on Opinion.

Justice Harlan referred to the anti-trust act of 1890 as being passed at a time of great unrest regarding aggregation of capital and referred to the Supreme Court decisions in the trans-Missouri and joint traffic cases, saying that no view was pressed in this case that was not brought out in those two cases, under which he supposed millions of dollars of property have changed hands, and that unsuccessful efforts had been made at every Congress to get the Sherman anti-trust law amended.

The trans-Missouri case, he pointed out, involved construction as to the scope and meaning of that anti-trust law.

"Who was here to instruct the court on that occasion? We hear a good deal about the "lamp of reason." We hear that the time has come when we should hold up the light of reason and look at this act, as if the men of that day, freshly after the passage of the act, were moving about in darkness and did not know what they were doing or saying." He named distinguished counsel in that case and later on referring to the Sherman Act said:

"Prosecutions have been insituted, and I suppose men have been convicted and sent to jail under the anti-trust act, upon the construction that his court has given to it.

"The court, in the opinion in this case says that this act of Congress means and embraces only unreasonable restraints of trade—inflat contradiction to what this court has said fifteen years ago that Congress did not intend.

"If you will take the trouble to look through the Federal Reporter, you will find that possibly nearly every Federal court in this country has accepted those original decisions as the final decision of this court as to the meaning of the act of Congress.

"Now we are asked to change the rule, and to say: 'It may be true that, in the words of the statute, this contract, or this agreement is in restraint of inter-State trade. It may be. But it is a lawful restraint of trade. It is a lawful restraint,' contrary to the decision of this court.

"I say contrary to the practice and usages of this court. If I mistake not more than once at this term a lawyer has been compelled to take his seat, to stop the particular line of argument that he was pursuing because he was arguing against a former decision of this court on that very question. He was wanting to break down that former decision."

Justice Harlan is calling attention to these two cases under which he supposed millions of dollars of property have changed hands, declared that there has been an effort at every session of Congress to get the Sherman anti-trust law amended.

"It has never been amended," said he, "and there is not a man in the country today who does not know that it will be amended by Congress of the United States to mean what they wanted Congress to have it mean, and which Congress refused to have it mean; to get the courts so to construe it.

"In the now not very short life that I have passed in this capital and the public service of the court, the most alarming tendency of this day, in my judgment, so far as the safety and integrity of our institutions are concerned, is the tendency to judicial legislation so that when men having vast interests are concerned, and they cannot get the law making power of the country which controls it to pass the legislation they desire, the next thing to do is to raise the question in some case to get the court to so construe the constitution or the statutes as to mean what they want it to mean. That has not been our practice."

"If there is any feature in our governmental system that is now among the nations of the earth," he concluded, "it is that provision of the Federal constitution which divides the departments of government among three co-ordinate branches—legislative, executive and judicial; and neither branch has the right to encroach upon the domain of the other.

"Practically the decision today—I do not mean the judgment—but parts of the opinion, are to the effect, practically, that the courts may by mere judicial construction amend the constitution of the United States or an act of Congress. That, it strikes me, is mischievous; and that is the part of the opinion that I especially object to."

SECRETARY KNOX SPEAKER.

International Conferences Force for Sympathy Says Secretary.

Washington, May 16.—International conferences are a potent force for international sympathy and understanding declared Secretary of State Knox in welcoming to this country the delegates to the Fourth International Conference for the Protection of Industrial Property. Scientific conferences bring to bear the thought of the most thoroughly trained expert minds of the world. He explained that the present conference illustrated "a remarkable evolution in commercial morality," another step toward international unity in effort for good.

Secretary of the Interior Fisher pledged his help to carry the results of the conference into effect.

A dean of the delegates, Dr. Ritter, the Swiss minister, thanked Secretary Knox for his speech and expressed particular gratification at Secretary Knox's reference to the "seat of the union at the capital of Switzerland, long so prominent in connection with advances along various lines in the spirit of interational unity."

Election was also carried for local tax school in Bailey township. The vote was 38 for and 15 against schools. This makes 23 special school tax districts in the county.

Nash county still continues to keep right in the forefront of progress.

vate capital, the law is vesting in them a great power, an artificial advantage which is of the greatest moment; and this advantage is given to them on the basis of public policy. It is not based upon inherent right. When they become hurtful they can and should be restrained or abolished. The individual cannot compete with them. He must, therefore, be protected against them. They must be made to understand that the great powers loaned them by the policy of the law are committed to them in trust, on the condition that they are to be fair and honest and serviceable.

"Public service corporations, such as railroads, street railways, gas companies, and companies which supply electric light and power, are in a still larger sense public instrumentalities. Besides having the artificial advantages and powers conferred upon the ordinary corporation doing what we call private business, they are in partnership with the government in the laying of rails, the erection of poles and wires, and the laving of conduits as the means of transmitting their service. They have had delegated to them the government's right of eminent domain, the right to market partial use of public highways, to condemn rights-of-way across pieces of private property.

"Moreover, they are in a very interesting sense natural monopolies. They generally use the pieces of land and the roads and highways which are most convenient to their purposes, and most direct for effecting the communication which they wish to effect; and it is perfectly obvious that if other companies are allowed to compete with them, there is a very wasteful duplication in outlay and equipment. So that competition generally results in an eventual combination of the competing companies and the necessity to charge a price on what they supply that will pay the interest on twice as great an investment as was really necessary for the service.

"More than that, they render a distinctly public service. Railroads and trolley lines and light and power companies are not mere conveniences. They constitute the basis of our modern life. Our communities could not live without them. Our communities could not have been built up without them. They are a common necessity, and, therefore, very much more than a common convenience. The life of a whole community can be altered and either facilitated or hampered by the way in which they are administered."

ROCKY POINT NEWS.

A Little Rain Fell Yesterday Morning—Negroes in An Affray.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Rocky Point, N. C., May 16.—A refreshing rain of short duration fell here this morning doing much good to vegetables and laying the dust, causing the air to feel just right.

A peripatetic wanderer with a magic lantern struck town last night with the "North Pole, Peary and Cook" and took a goodly amount of nickles at the Academy. According to reports it was the "worst sold" audience ever gathered. He completely froze it up and then attempted to get out by reproducing "Cuby and the Cuby War." The consensus of opinion of his audience was that the young man had better fold up his panorama, buy a goose-neck hoe and weed his mammy's garden.

The honorable justices of the peace held court this morning. Two parties who were violators of the law had a row. One of them King Johnson, struck another—a South African nigger—with his double-barrel gun hard enough to break it in two, causing an explosion of both barrels, and yet the S. A. negro's skull remains uncracked. Mr. G. W. Meeks was attorney for Johnson, thus keeping the case from going so hard "agin him." Mr. Meeks is a rising young attorney and has concluded to hang out his shingle on the Point. There's room for one more.

Under No Circumstances

would we be afraid to have you compare our goods with any of our competitors, for experience has proven that our line is the most reliable that can be offered to buyers. In purchasing diamonds, watches or silverware, it is necessary to know the exact facts about them. We encourage "inquisitiveness" in our customers, and delight in telling them the plain truth about our goods. That, with courteous treatment has won solid, lasting friends for us, and we propose to keep it up.

Valuable piece of property for sale, at Private Sale until June 1st, 1911, and if not sold by that time it will be put up and sold at Auction. This property is located at 116 North Second Street, this city; has a new brick building, 148 feet deep, 50 feet wide, 17-inch wall, 35 feet high all round. The second floor is doubled floored with 2-nch tongue and grooved flooring; in fact, it is one of the best built buildings in the city, and on account of its location should bring a good price. It is opposite the Postoffice Square; in front of The Orton Hotel; only one block away, with a perfect view from Front street. This place has been used since it was built for a sales stable, and we find that we want more room to do a wholesale Horse and Mule business. Any further information, apply,

ICE! ICE!! ICE!!!

-:-YES-:-

ICE! ICE!! and ICE!!!

One might almost be led to believe that this community had never seen Pure Ice until this good year 1911.

A great man once said "there is pothing new under the sun" and this is so to a great extent when it comes to the manufacture of Ice.

Now, as a matter of fact, The Independent Ice Company has been for ten years and is still making as pure, as clean, as healthful to use ice as can be found in all North Carolina. We defy anyone to prove to the contrary. Our prices are as low as the lowest. We give full guaranteed weight. Our service is the best Wilmington ever had. We have a polite, accommodating corps of officials who will thank any one to report any act of neglect or discourtesy on the part of our wagon drivers or helpers.

Do the right thing for yourselves and for ourselves by taking ice from the old reliable.

THE INDEPENDENT ICE CO.

The Atlantic Trust & Banking Co.

Is anxious to have you become one of its customers, and it Knows that it is better for you to have your money on

DEPOSIT AT FOUR PER CENT.

Than to keep the money hidden away in the house, where it is in danger of Burglary and Fire.

This Bank will extend every courtesy to its depositors, treating large and small accounts with the same consideration.

TURPOILINE

CHEAPER THAN TURPENTINE

It is an odorless mineral product, which possesses great solvent power for paints and varnishes, has the requisite high flash for working and the clean evaporation which leaves the coating in perfect condition.

TURPOILINE makes a free flowing varnish, free from bloom. It flat colors better than turpentine.

TURPOILINE is thorough uniform; you can be assured of receiving the same product all the time.

TURPOILINE costs less and works well.

TURPOLINE is the most satisfactory product on the market for the paint and varnish man.

Try TURPOILINE. One thorough trial will convince you.
